

BASIC OFFICER LEADER COURSE

Honor Code Counseling

1. This Honor Code counseling applies to all students attending Basic Officer Leader Course.
2. The following are unacceptable and prohibited behaviors that may lead to an Honor Code infraction. Definitions of each term can be found in the Glossary of Terms at the back of the Army Logistics University SOP, dated 15 January 2015. This list may not be inclusive, depending on the circumstances of a suspected infraction.
  - (1) Cheating.
  - (2) Collaborating.
  - (3) Equivocation.
  - (4) Plagiarizing.
  - (5) Unauthorized assistance.
3. Students who are found to have violated the Honor Code may be subject, but are not limited, to the following:
  - (1) Failure on the exercise or examination.
  - (2) Termination of enrollment in the course.
  - (3) Initiation of an adverse academic evaluation report (AER).
  - (4) Adverse administrative action.
  - (5) Disciplinary action under the Uniform Code of Military Justice.
  - (6) Elimination from the Army prior to the end of the term of service.
4. Procedures for suspected Honor Code violations; both cadre and students may be found in Chapter's 7 & 8 of the Army Logistics University SOP, dated 15 January 2015.

References:

AR 600-20, Army Command Policy, 13 May 2002.
AR 600-23, Army Health promotion, 28 April 1996
TRADOC Regulation 350-6, IET Policies and Administration, 16 June 2004.
Army Logistics University Standard Operating Procedure, 15 January 2015.
CASCOM and Fort Lee Regulation 600-27, 26 September 2003

I have read and understand this counseling concerning the Army Logistics University Honor Code and therefore accountable for my actions concerning any violation of the rules and guidelines.

---

Printed Name (Last, First, MI)

---

Signature

---

Date